Statement of No Statehood This Session Misunderstood

MEANT ONLY YESTERDAY

Visitors from Territories Relieved at Explanation

Washington, Jan. 22.-At a meeting of consider statehood bills at this session. "No," promptly responded Chairman

There are many representatives of Oklahoma, New Mexico and Arizona here interested in statchood in some form and this statement or Senator Beveridge had created a feeling of disappointment until it was learned that by this session, he only meant today's session of this committee. When this explanation was given there was much relief felt among the visiting delegations,

Should this session pass without action it would mean that no stars would be ed to the flag on the Fourth of July next, and no new element could enter into the electoral vote for pres dent.

Further hearing of Oklahoma's petition for statehood has been postponed until next Monday. Mr. Hamilton, chairman of the committee on territories, has gone to Pennsylvania to deliver a speech, and Representative Lloyd, of Missouri, vicechairman of the committee, is going home Saturday night to be gone a week. Sid-ney G. Clark, of Oklahoma C ty, has presented an argument in behalf of the McGuire bill, and J. T. Boyle of Perry. O. T., will advocate single statehood for Indian and Oklahoma territories com-

The chief love interest in the dramatization of the well known New England "Quincy Adams Sawyer," is the strong admiration of young Sawyer, the city fellow and son of a millionaire, for Alice Pettengill, a blind girt. It was a good deal of a question when the dramatiration was made as to whether the public would be in sympathy with such peculiar courtship, and the dramatist sercusty thought of getting away from the book in this respect by having Sawyer in love Lindy Putnam.
